A UNIVERSAL ARTICLE OF FAITH .-In these days of religious contention it has been thought impossible to indicate an article of faith upon which all sects and classes were united. There is one, how-ever, and a very notable one too, viz.: A belief which is implicit and universal in the paramount efficacy of that matchless Household Tonic and Recuperant, Plantation Bitters. The constantly increasing patronage which it receives has, it is true excited the petty envy of certain splenetic advertisers of pinchbeck panecess, who hope to make a market for their own stagnant, watery ware, by decrying all spirituous medicinal preparations. But the publie can stomach neither their arguments nor their potations, and consequently reject these very weak imitations of the enemy as entirely too thin !
